

I am outraged at Sinclair Broadcasting's abuse of our airwaves in forcing their stations to show an anti-Kerry smear days before the election. This is nothing but an extended "swift boat" attack ad. You are failing in your responsibility to the American people by not taking action. I cannot imagine a better example of why media consolidation is a bad thing. I will do anything in my power to defeat politicians who think Sinclair's behavior is acceptable.